ANNOUNCEMENTS/CORRESPONDENCE:

John Carsel: We received a letter from Russ Taylor regarding a water leak in CSA 10A. He wrote a letter of appreciation regarding the efficient response from those in charge.

Public Comments; use the microphone, state name and residence, 3 minute limit.

Eileen Roach, Cypress Glen Court: Our restrooms at the beach have one stall out on the women's side and it has been like this for six months. With the Sea Glass Festival coming up, this needs to be fixed.

Jeff Eckles, resident of Morro Bay: I am running for Supervisor in District 2.

Connie Paine, Stuart Ave.: On February 7, 2018, The Coastal Commission denied the application by Franco DeCicco for the hotel at Old Creek Rd. and Ocean Blvd. Substantial issue existed that the development was not in conformity with SLO County LCP.

Council Member Comments:

Paul Choucalas: Zeke Dellamas did a great job at The Coastal Commission hearing as well as Bruce Gibson and John Carsel. Thanks to everyone.

Steve Beightler: The Board of Supervisors hearing regarding the Cayucos Fire Department is on March 13 at 2:00. The more people who are able to attend, the better.

Cayucos Fire Department -

Howard Sanford of the Cayucos Fire Department gave the monthly report of incidents.

Public Agencies

County Sheriff- Commander Jim Voge.

Commander Voge: We had 39 calls which was low in comparison to 62 calls the month before. 6 suspicious vehicles, 1 phone scam (IRS), 0 vandalism, 6 check the welfare, 6 disturbing the peace. One call resulted in an arrest at Studio Dr. and Highway 1. It was a traffic stop, the suspect was arrested for meth. On March 25th as Los Osos man with a heroin addiction helped himself to over $4,000 in stereo equipment. He was arrested. On Richard Ave., two teenagers were arrested for burglary.
